COURSE INFORMATION

This qualification reflects the role of workers who provide self-directed recovery oriented support for people affected by mental illness and psychiatric disability. Work involves implementing community based programs and activities focusing on mental health, mental illness and psychiatric disability. Work is undertaken in a range of community contexts such as community based non-government organisations; home based outreach; centre-based programs; respite care; residential services, rehabilitation programs; clinical settings; or supporting people in employment. Work is carried out autonomously under the broad guidance of other practitioners and professionals.

This qualification is typically delivered over a duration of 7.5 months, including 80 hours of work placement in a mental health work setting.

Upon completion of this qualification, students are eligible to apply for roles such as:

- Community Rehabilitation and Support Worker
- Community Support Worker
- Mental Health Outreach Worker

This qualification is delivered out of our North Lakes location.

"I've completed my study with Ashley Institute and I couldn't be more grateful to choose such an amazing place to study! I felt more at home than a place of study, their trainers, especially Jo, are wonderful as they want you to progress and are always there to support."

Keshia
Former student with the Ashley Institute of Training
